

Introduction to Defence Aviation Safety Guidebook – Release of Edition 4

DASA wishes to advise that the Introduction to Defence Aviation Safety Guidebook Edition 4 has been approved and released by the Defence Aviation Authority (replacing Edition 3 of February 2024).

Overview

The Guidebook contains high level policy and regulation information at an introductory level and has been developed as a handy reference to the Defence Aviation Safety Framework for the Defence aviation safety community. The information in the guidebook aligns with the Defence Aviation Safety Program and the Defence Aviation Safety Regulations.
