

DASB aviation safety resources available on ADF Electronic Flight Bag

DASA wishes to advise that the following releases and updates are available to the regulated community via the DASA DASA wishes to advise that select aviation safety resources are now accessible via the ADF Electronic Flight Bag (EFB).

Defence Flight Safety Bureau (DASB) has recently created the DASB Flight Safety Resources folder within the DoD Common SharePoint folder of the EFB. This folder provides users quick access via their EFB to tools, resources and promotional material relevant to flight safety.

The Fatigue Risk Awareness Tool, Self-administered interview form, Aviation Safety Non-Technical Skills Guidebook, Aviation Safety Investigation Reports and Aviation Safety Spotlight Magazine are among the resources available.

If there is an aviation safety tool created/distributed by DASA-DASB that you would like to access via the EFB, please contact the Publishing and Multimedia Team to discuss: dfsб.рm@defence.gov.au
