

Cancellation of Advisory Circular 001/16 – Airworthiness Nomenclature Under Defence Aviation Safety Regulations

DASA advise that Advisory Circular 001/16 Airworthiness Nomenclature Under Defence Aviation Safety Regulations has been cancelled.

DASA promulgated Advisory Circular 001/2016 to support the community during the transition from legacy terminology and regulations to DASR in 2016. As the regulated community now have sufficient maturity operating in the DASR, the AC is no longer required. The material contains dated terminology and information, established to support transition from MILAVREG, OAREG and TAREG regulations and concepts, which is no longer consistent with extant policy.
