Release of Advisory Circular 006/2020 Repairs

DASA advises that Advisory Circular 006/2020 Repairs has been released.

This AC provides guidance on regulatory provisions under the DASR framework as they relate to repairs. The guidance outlines the generic sequencing of repair development through to embodiment (including classification considerations and ongoing holder obligations), and provides eight specific common/typical scenarios most likely to be encountered (including considerations regarding leveraging the DASA recognition framework).
