

CLARIFICATION AND RENAMING OF E62 EXCLUSION FOR DASR 66 MILITARY AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE LICENCES (MAMLs)

To assist with some misunderstanding, MAML Exclusion E62 will be renamed from 'Excluding Supervision of Maintenance', to 'Excluding Management and Oversight of Maintenance'.

DASA has also recently clarified military training competencies required to remove Exclusion E62.

DASA will remove Exclusion E62 upon successful completion of the following ADF competencies:

1. RAAF Aviation Technical Supervision Course (ATSC) (P101731) and successful completion of the Practical Assessment (PA) (P123485) – the PA being completed within four months of the ATSC course completion date.
2. NAVY Leading Seaman Advance Technical Training (LSATT) course (P121305); and completion of LSATT–AT competency journal (P126850).
3. ARMY SUBJ 4 CPL AVN TECHN Proficiency (P105999).

Note: Successful completion of selection boards, post completion of these competencies, are not required for Exclusion E62 to be removed (e.g. the RAAF Technical Supervision Selection Board (TSSB) or the Navy Maintenance Supervisor Authorisation).

The DASR 66 MAML Exclusion Inclusion Endorsement Manual will be updated to include the new name of the E62 Exclusion and the above requirements for its removal from a MAML.
