

Transition of the DASA Internet Website

The DASA website (<https://defence.gov.au/DASP>) is transitioning to a new platform. A new DASA Internet Website is currently under construction and will be online in the coming weeks.

From 30 Jun 23, links to the DASA website will redirect to an interim DASA internet landing page. DPN users should refer to the DASA intranet site for key policy and regulation, although the DASR and ADRM will be publicly available on the interim DASA internet site. Users can request all other content by emailing dasa.dasr@defence.gov.au.

This change will affect any bookmarks or hyperlinks to DASA content. These changes will not impact the Intranet site.

DASA will advise when the new internet site is available
