

Introduction to DASR 147 Course

Course Code

219062

Course Duration

Self-paced E-Learning via ADELE - Approximately 5 hours

Instructor Led (face to face) delivery - Approximately 5 hours

Course Content

The course contains information that helps develop an understanding of the following:

- Purpose of DASR 147 Aircraft Maintenance Training Organisations (AMTO)
- DASR 147 Aircraft Maintenance Training Organisation Requirements (AMTO)
- Military Aircraft Basic Training requirements
- Military Aircraft Type Training requirements

Course Pre-Requisites

Nil

Target Audience

Key position holders within a DASR 147 Maintenance Training Organisation

Class Size

Maximum 30 students

Sessions

Primary Method – E Learning via ADELE LMS via this link: Course: Introduction TO DASR 147 S1 | ADELE \(O:S\)

Secondary Method – Instructor Led (face to face).

Proficiency

P130016 - Introduction to DASR 147

If there is requirement to record on PMKEYS, please email DASA Training with your employee identification number and a copy of the completion certificate.

Course Costs

There are no participation costs for this course.

Special Requirements

Please notify DASA Training should you require assistance in attending the course, such as access, hearing, vision assistance, etc.

Nomination form

For Instructor Led (face to face) training, personnel are to nominate directly to DASA Training using webform AE655. If you are unable to nominate using the form above, please contact DASA Training.

Course Panelling

Panelled courses will be advised by email.

Course Enquiries and Contact

DASA.training@defence.gov.au